NEW PLAN FOR PAISLEY

But it fails to please council

Altona Council is still opposed to use of the former briquette dump at Paisley for housing, despite a new plan by the Housing Commission to reduce the proposed density of people.

Altona Council representatives were told at a meeting last week that the density would be reduced from 6100 to 5400 people.

Representatives were the city engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons and the town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell.

Mr. Fell said a report of the meeting would be discussed by council but he believed council would remain opposed to the commission's proposal for a housing complex on the estate.

The area is bounded by Mills, Mason and Blenheim streets and the Werribee railway line.

Blenheim Street is on the boundary between the Altona and Williams town municipalities. Both cities have opposed previous Housing Commission plans for the site, objecting principally to proposed population density and proximity to the oil refinery.

Mr. Fell said council felt that housing should not be permitted in such close proximity to heavy industry, when land suitable for housing was available in Werribee and Laverton.

"The shortage of open space land in the Newport, Kingsville and Footscray areas should be heeded."

"We believe the Paisley estate land could be better used for open space purposes," Mr. Fell said.

The Town Planning Appeals Tribunal recently rejected the commission's appeal for a permit to build but left the door open to a fresh application which it has now made to the Board of Works.

The first plan the commission put up envisaged a population density of 8000 people in four-storey dwellings.

It cut the proposed density to 6100 — without success.

Councillors are likely to scrutinise the commission's plans closely and their agreement will certainly not be automatic.

In a letter to the Board of Works with its new application the commission's solicitors said some housing fronting Mason and Mills Sts., was still retained in a three-storey form for architectural effects and to create a sound-barrier to traffic noise.

They said the commission was prepared to reduce all units to two storeys if the tribunal on further appeal directs it to.

FACILITIES

The number of dwellings proposed was 1282.

- 15 acres of land to be set aside for primary schools.
- 2.45 acres for kindergartens.
- 4.7 acres for a shopping centre and 2.45 for a car park.
- 6 acres for a community centre.
- 1.24 acres for churches.
- 36 acres for open space.

Council circles feel that the area's roads and transport facilities would need great improvement.

And electrification of the railway line would be needed eventually if the development goes ahead.

WELFARE COUNCIL CHANGES SET-UP

The Western Region Council for Social Development will be incorporated as a private, non-profit company.

The council is responsible for distributing welfare benefits totalling $2.1 million provided by the Australian Government over three years through its Australian Assistance Plan.

The executive director of the council, Mrs. Ruth Champion said on Monday all members of the interim committee would automatically become members of the company.

Mrs. Champion said the membership rolls for the new social welfare organisation will close on Tuesday, September 17.

"Only those on the membership roll will be eligible to elect the first general committee of the new company."

Mrs. Champion said application forms are available from the council, Post Office Box 144, Footscray, 3011, or personally at the office at 89 Ballarat Road, Footscray.

The interim committee will hold public meetings in the nine member municipalities to report to local people, and hear from people about the projects already funded and future welfare needs.

In Altona, the meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 2 at 8 p.m. in the committee room, Civic Offices, Civic Parade.

Lion hunt a fizzer

A lion scare at Altona on Monday night brought four police cars speeding to the area but the chase turned out to be a wild goose hunt.

The "lion," first reported in Bracken Grove, was tracked to a front garden where it was found to be nothing more than a shaggy dog story — an Afghan hound.

College open to public

Melbourne State College, the largest teacher training institution in Australia, will hold its first open day on Sunday, September 15, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A highlight of the day will be the official opening of the college's new $2.75 million arts centre at 3 p.m. by the Premier, Mr. Hamer.

WHO'S FOR A SWIM?

In the spring a young girl's fancy often turns to swimming.

How does Altona Beach measure up as a place to go for a day at the seaside?

Is it good or just handy?

Any suggestions for improvement?

Altona residents and visitors see it this way:

Mr. Jack Vassiliou, Pier Street: "It's very good. No pollution at all—not in this section near Pier Street. The council has put sand on the beach, and made it clean. I've been in a couple of times in winter at 6.30 a.m. It's only cold before and when you come out—the water is nice. It has improved a lot, and has all the facilities. I intend to stay in Altona, and build a home here."

Mrs. Mizzi, Civic Parade: "We swim near Fleming's Pool. It's all right here near Pier Street, but Fleming's is nearer, and I collect mussels—we haven't died yet."

"Some days, however, it's shocking—when the tide comes in, and towards the end of summer. In mid-December and January it's all right."

"There are open drains nearby—white, milky fluid flows in. I think it comes from factories. We swim regularly, but there are not enough facilities—no shower, no changing room, no lifeguard. It's not much sand there, and when it becomes crowded in summer there is no room to sit down."

"People can't swim right along—only near Pier Street. There are too many rocks in some parts and too much mud—black mud feet deep near the boat ramp."

"Many people come to sit in the park, not to swim. Altona Beach is really popular but for the pollution."

Mrs. May and customers, Stanley Street: "It has a lot in its favor—the parks are nice, with swings, &c., for the kids."

The traffic is also good for children—at other beaches cars are flying by, and mothers have to worry where the children are.

"There are more bins needed, and someone should patrol it."

"There are nice sandy beaches in other places, but you can't earn so much money there. I've lived on the other side, but would sooner live here."

Mrs. Dowton, visitor from Mitcham: "Seaweed is the only trouble as it smells. Otherwise it's a good beach. Mordialloc is safe for the kids, but this one is also."

Steven Dowton (about 10): "They should take the seaweed out every day. The water takes it back out again."

Mr. Jim Henry, Laverton: "I haven't seen much of the beach as I've been in Laverton only six months. It seems a bit dirty and I'm not keen to let my kids swim there. About a mile down there's a rubbish tip and open pipes not far away."

Mrs. Merritt, Fenfield Street: "I don't let the kids on the beach. I can supervise them better in our own back-yard pool. I think it's about time something was done about the Bay all over. At Portarlington it is reasonably clean."

Mrs. Hardham, Civic Parade: "It's a lot better now since they've put sand down. The dogs enjoy it. There is a bit more freedom now. I reckon when the summer comes it'll be great—haven't seen this much sand for years. When I was a kid there was more, but it disappeared. Last year we went to the surf beaches but this year it will definitely be here. I think everyone else will enjoy it this year, too."

Zoran Pantelic, Railway Street: "I have just moved here from West Footscray."

It's a very nice beach, but not clean. They should clean away the seaweed and provide rubbish drums. They should provide things for the children—it's too empty, just sand and sea. People could enjoy it—it's a much better beach than Williamstown."

Alan Doubleton (12): "It's better than before. They should take the drains out further, as far as the channel."

Dante Brown (13): "The drains spoil it but it's a lot cleaner than it used to be."

Dale Mather (12): "It's much better. Could clean it a bit more in front of the pier and clean up the seaweed along the beach."

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Pascoe Vale, "It's improved a lot—a lot cleaner than Port Melbourne. At one time it was very bad here. We thought we'd bring the grandchildren from Croydon for a day out. I like the way they look after the kids here—the lawns are very nice."

Council says...

The Star referred suggestions relating to the daily removal of seaweed, the extensions of drainage pipes and evidence of milky fluid to Altona's city engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons.

Mr. Simmons' comments were: "Seaweed is really just grass and presents no real problem unless it accumulates and rots."

"If people knew how much it would cost to remove seaweed every day, I'm sure they would say 'no'. I agree it is desirable, but not from the cost angle. Few ratepayers would be agreeable to the cost of daily removal."

"Regarding the extension of drains, the answer is 'Yes', but we can't go to the channel—that would be 1000 feet, and boats would be endangered by the pipes. There is such a slight fall, and it would be impossible to lay pipes below the seabed as they would not discharge."

"However, the drains should and will be extended. We are waiting only until warmer weather before commencing the work."

"The milky fluid would probably be normal household drainage, as I know of no industrial drainage in the vicinity. Houses reasonably close to the beach—as far back as a quarter of a mile—all drain into the sea," Mr. Simmons said.

SAFE, HAPPY PLACE, MINISTER FINDS

Safety precautions and a happy management relationship with employees impressed the Minister for Labor and Industry, Mr. Rafferty, on an inspection tour of the Australian Synthetic Rubber Company Limited's plant at Altona West.

Mr. Gillham conducted Mr. Rafferty to all sections.

Mr. Rafferty said: "I was particularly impressed with the safety precautions and was also pleased with the scheme for training their own operators in the industry."

"The layout was very impressive, and I was pleased to hear that the company was exporting to South-East Asian countries."

"I was pleased to find a happy relationship between management and employee," Mr. Rafferty said.

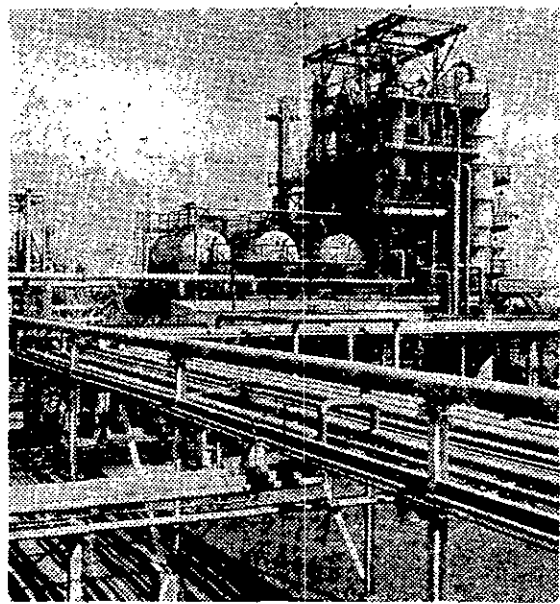

Mr. Gillham explained that the company's export activity in the past few years had not been as great as formerly due to the pressures of excess capacity of many of the overseas manufacturers.

"More recently, however, we have found a market overseas for specialised products," Mr. Gillham said.

Mr. Rafferty was also accompanied by his press secretary, Mr. Dalton, and the company's marketing adviser, Mr. Harry Neale.

Mr. Neale said the company employed 195 people mostly from the Altona, Laverton, and Werribee areas.

"Of these, only 18 are engaged at any one time in actual operation of the plant," Mr. Neale said.

A view of the recovery section at the plant.

The company began operations in 1961 and markets a comprehensive range of styrene butadiene rubber and polybutadiene rubber to the tyre and rubber industry.

It was the first company to make synthetic-rubber in the southern hemisphere and is one of only two such manufacturers now operating in Australia.

The company is owned jointly by Mobil Petroleum Inc., Esso Standard Oil (Aust.) Ltd. and Goodyear Tyre and Rubber Co. (Aust.) Ltd.

Mobil and Esso each share 35 per cent. ownership with Goodyear holding the remaining 30 per cent. share.

The total plant investment at original cost is more than $16 million.

HELLO GIRLS,

Could you tell me the colors of the handles of the hair brushes each member of your family uses? Can you? I would not ask you to describe each style the family use—or I hope they do. Hygiene has a high priority in your home no doubt. Hope it doesn't fall down in this area.

Look the family over—different hair lengths, different thickness, curly, wavy or straight. It would have to be a miracle brush to be best suited to each and every one of you.

When considering your personal brush I think you first should think of the type of bristle, nylon or mixture, the head must have to the kindest to your hair. But it doesn't stop there! The numbers of rows of bristles and the way these are shaped are important. Long hair most often prefers the convenience of a spiral or completely circled brush. Long hair, but fine hair may be happier with a semi-brush. And so it goes.

Hold the brush yourself before buying. It must feel comfortable—notice the different handle shapes. Please do not expect to brush your hair before buying! Would you use a brush with hairs already hanging from it?

We have at Herberts Amcal Chemist can help you with just any style of brush you describe. Here is a price range for all.

And PLEASE wash your hair brush regularly. This is as often as you wash your hair. Can you imagine anyone brushing nice clean dry shining hair with a dirty hair brush—or comb?

Over this week away from you there are so many new colors on the make-up stands, I just find it easier to generalise. Eight new soft super shiny eye shadows from Revlon. Then again from Revlon a real must—special large size non-smudge remover and new extra long-life top-coat (no more excuses for chipped nails). Watch for the new displays of Cyclax nail, eye and lip wear.

Max Factor has started Spring with kind thoughts for your lips. Shiny, moisturising, nourishing, there is a long name—and we haven't even mentioned the color name.

He paved way to success

Mr. Gina Magnabosco, one of Altona's hard-working citizens and war-time partisan fighter, can now enjoy the fruits of his labor and reflect on the many narrow escapes he had in combat with German soldiers in the mountains of Italy.

Mr. Magnabosco now has his own investment company in association with interests in five land sub-divisions controlled by two estate companies of which he holds a major share.

Now unable to do hard manual work because of spinal trouble, Mr. Magnabosco can see the fruits of his labor wherever he walks in Altona.

In partnership with his friend, Mr. Guido Frigo, Mr. Magnabosco formed the Altona Paving Company in 1956 and the company has since been responsible for all concrete footpaths, kerbing and channeling existing in the city.

Mr. Frigo, who is now overseas, lives next door to Mr. Magnabosco, in David Street, Altona.

Mr. Magnabosco is proud of two medals he received for his partisan role in his home country and certificate from General Alexander, commander of the allied forces in the Mediterranean, for assistance given to his forces.

Two of his brothers — one a professor of languages — were killed during the conflict.

In Belgium

After the war Mr. Magnabosco worked in Belgium for a period before coming to Australia in 1951.

He worked for an Australian concreting firm before starting the paving company with Mr. Frigo.

They obtained contracts from the City of Altona and worked constantly on council projects until last year, usually employing about 20 men.

Mr. Magnabosco said he worked as hard as two men during this period.

He said he was pleased now that his family would not suffer the same hardship and the dangers of combat he had experienced.

Mr. Magnabosco married Romana Porto, a girl from his home town, Cesuna, in Northern Italy, in 1950.

The couple have three children — Linda, Frank and Sandra. Linda married Mr. Ricky Kirwan and lives in Railway Street, Altona.

Frank is in fifth form at St. Patrick's College, Ballarat, and Sandra is attending Altona primary school this year before moving on to Mount St. Joseph's next year.

Mr. Magnabosco is a keen member of the Altona Working Men's Club.

Home soon

Mr. Magnabosco's partner, Mr. Frigo, married Maria Teresa Magnabosco (no relation) in 1951 and he came to Australia the same year.

He worked in a factory and later was employed cutting pine at Eildon. His wife came to Australia in 1953 and the couple have four children — Albert, Loretta, Lorenzo and Lina.

Albert is a chemist, Loretta is studying to be a teacher, Lorenzo is in sixth form at St. Patrick's, and Lina is at St. Mary's primary school, Altona.

Mr. Frigo and his family returned to Italy in 1962 for a big reunion with his mother and family.

He is expected back from his present trip at the end of the month.

Mr. Gino Magnabosco

Gaol for assault on detectives

A 25-year-old Newport man found to have punched, kicked and resisted two detectives in a Williamstown hotel was sentenced in the Williamstown Court last Thursday to six months' gaol.

The man, Boris Murko, butcher, of Blackshaws Road, who had pleaded not guilty to six charges, gave notice of appeal and was allowed bail.

Senior Detective Peter Cochrane, of Footscray CIB, told the court that the trouble began in the toilet of the Hobson's Bay Hotel at 6.30 p.m. on October 24, last year.

"I had occasion to use the toilet," he said. "Murko was inside and he started to walk away."

"I felt a hard blow to my kidneys and slumped to my knees on the floor. I saw Murko standing over me."

"Then he said 'Copper . . . ' and kicked me in the ribs."

Snr. Det. Cochrane told the court that another policeman, Snr. Det. Alan Beales, came into the toilet and said "Police here. You are under arrest."

Still on the floor, he saw Beales and Murko struggling. Murko punched Beales on the chest and Beales hit Murko.

Cochrane went to help Beales as Murko struggled violently. They took him outside the hotel, still struggling. He kicked Beales in the shin.

Murko was handcuffed and put in a police car where he continued to struggle with Beales in the back seat.

To Mr. G. Lewis, for Murko Snr. Det. Cochrane denied a suggestion that he provoked Murko.

Asked if he saw a one-inch gash on Murko's face and swelling around his eyes, he said "No."

Mr. Lewis: "Did you know that he went to Russell Street later and lodged a complaint?"

Snr. Det. Cochrane: "No."

Murko gave evidence that he went to a funeral earlier and then to a 'wake'.

He said he was in the toilet when a man whom he identified as Snr. Det. Beales walked in.

Beales asked him his name and he asked Beales his name and for proof of identity.

Murko claimed that Beales said, "you smart . . ." and hit him

Citizen arrest comes unstuck

A former policeman who tried to make a "citizen" arrest in Nelson Place, Williamstown, finished being charged with assault causing bodily harm, assault by kicking and unlawful assault.

In Williamstown Court last Thursday, Mr. J. W. Dunn, SM, convicted him of the bodily harm charge, fined him $200 (in default 20 days' gaol) and ordered him to pay $198 to the man he attacked for broken dentures, glasses and loss of wages.

The former policeman is David Gordon Sullivan, 40, of Nelson Place, Williamstown. He runs an aquarium shop that also sells diving and other equipment. He is said to have been a member of police forces in Britain and in Australia.

He pleaded not guilty to the charge of which he was convicted. To assault by kicking (dismissed) and unlawful assault (with-drawn by police prosecutor, Det. Sgt. Ron Vienna).

Peter McCann, machine operator, gave evidence that he walked out of a Chinese cafe in Nelson Place at 8 p.m. on July 14, and was attacked by Sullivan, who punched him and knocked off his glasses.

McCann said Sullivan and his son grabbed him and forced him down a nearby lane. They kept hitting him.

He went down but he was still hit with fists and feet. When he was able to get up he ran to the police station.

Sullivan said McCann had spent a lot of time at his shop, McCann's brother took some diving equipment and agreed to pay $348 for it. But his cheque bounced.

phone call

Peter later rang and said that he would pay the money. That was last October.

He did not see Peter McCann again until July 14, in Nelson Place.

Then, he said, he told McCann he was going to take him to the police station because he wanted to find out about the money he was owed.

McCann replied: "It has got nothing to do with me mate," and began to walk away.

Sullivan grabbed him by the collar.

"He punched me on the chest and pushed me away," said Sullivan. I hit him once with my fist. Then my son came along.

Sullivan said they were taking McCann towards the police station when he broke away, ran towards the lane and fell against a stone block.

Sullivan said he had never kicked anyone in his life. He felt justified in making a citizen's arrest.

Addressing Sullivan, Mr. Dunn said that it must be becoming obvious to him that taking the law into his own hands was fraught with repercussions.

The law provided severe penalties (up to $1000 fine or 6 months' gaol) for the offence of which he was convicted.

In imposing penalties, he said, he was taking the emotional background of the case into consideration but he stressed that it was not an excuse.

CRESSER RESERVE FENCING

An application for the fencing of part of W. G. Cresser Reserve for use by the Boat Owner's Association and Coastguard Auxiliary will be referred to the Port Phillip Authority for its consent.

The Altona Council, at its recent meeting, decided to serve the application, by the Altona and Seaholme Boat Owners' Association, to the authority for fencing of the compound only, at this stage.

The Local Government Department says it would consider use of portion of the reserve subject to issue of a permit by the authority.

Voting system delayed end of meat strike

By JOHN DIXON

The system used in the Townsville, Queensland, segment of a national vote of the meat workers' strike involving about 3000 Victorians — more than half in the western suburbs — delayed the end of the strike about a week.

But the arbitration system under which the strike was ended — used for the first time in Australia — gave the Australian Meat Industry Employees' Union its full claim.

The vote was on whether the 'two envelope' system would be used to settle the dispute, which kept the workers out for almost nine weeks.

Federal and State president of the union, Mr. Jack Sparks, said, yesterday the vote first rejected use of the system.

But the Executive challenged the Townsville vote and met in Queensland last week to settle the issue.

It was discovered the Townsville vote was taken from employees listed on company books there, not from all union members who attended a meeting to discuss the issue.

He denied a statement made to The Mail last week by a spokesman for William Angliss and Co., that the strike's end was delayed by a "cooked vote" in Queensland.

The issue had been one of procedure, not an irregularity, Mr. Sparks said.

THE SYSTEM

Under the two-envelope system, often used in the United States, the union placed its claims in an envelope and the employers their offer in another and both went before the Arbitration Commission.

The agreement was that the commission would accept one of the envelopes, without discussion on a part-way settlement and the union and employers would both accept this decision without dispute.

In this case, Commissioner Gough had decided, in Queensland last week, to accept the union's envelope.

The employers had offered 15 per cent., Mr. Sparks said.

After Commissioner Gough gave his finding, the union instructed striking members to return to work. Borthwick's employees, in Brooklyn, went back last Wednesday and Angliss employees last Thursday.

Many Angliss workers I spoke to after they knocked off last Thursday were critical of the way the union handled the negotiations.

But they would not pinpoint any specific fault.

One man art show

Forty-two paintings by Tom Argyle will be displayed at an art exhibition in the youth centre in Essex Street, West Footscray, on Monday to Friday.

The paintings at the exhibition, organised by the Footscray and District YMCA, will be sold for $15-$40.

Mr. Argyle migrated to Australia from England and before World War Two worked and painted his way around Victoria.

He enlisted in the army, then transferred to the RAAF, and served 12 years, including four in Japan and the Korean War.

He studied oriental art in his spare time and had his first exhibition in Japan.

When he returned to Australia Mr. Argyle held an exhibition in St. Kilda.

He was discharged from the RAAF and later had one-man exhibitions in Sunshine.

Mr. Argyle's paintings are in private collections in the United States, Ireland, England, Japan, Western Australia and Victoria.

Had hands on the loot...

Thieves who broke into a mixed business in Mason Street, Newport between 10 p.m. last Monday and 6 a.m. Tuesday actually had their hands on the money from the cash register. But they got nothing.

The money was removed from the cash register and placed on the counter, where it still was when the store owner discovered the breaking.

The attempted theft was at a shop conducted by Mrs. Gabriel Kingstott, which has a residence attached.

The breakers entered by forcing a window in the house-section of the building.

After going into the shop, the cash register, police believe they thought they had been disturbed and fled.

Senior Detective R. Coghlan, of Footscray CIB, is heading the investigation.

Trustee dies aged 67

A member of the board of trustees of the Williamstown Elderly Citizens Village died on Thursday.

He was Mr. Edward Dann, of 48 Bayview Street, Williamstown, who was 67.

Mr. Dann, who was a managing law clerk before he retired in 1969, was a charter member of the Williamstown Lions Club and was secretary of the Williamstown Youth Centre for several years.

He also played golf at the Williamstown Golf Club.

Mr. Dann lived in Williamstown for 42 years and he is survived by his wife, Nicki, and children, Graeme, Brian and Maurie and 11 grandchildren.

Dr. Coutts gives up hospital board job

Williamstown's best-known medical practitioner, Dr. D. D. Coutts, has given up his seat on the Williamstown Hospital Committee of Management.

Hospital secretary, Mr. Norm Maxwell, said yesterday Dr. Coutts was due to re-nominate this year, nominations had closed and he had not re-nominated.

He continues to be a member of the committee until the annual meeting of subscribers, at the Town Hall supper room on September 17, when his seat will be declared vacant — after 32 years.

During this 32 years, Dr. Coutts has served for 17 years as president of the committee.

He has been a member of the hospital's honorary medical staff since he came to Williamstown, in 1928. He continues to hold this position.

Mr. Maxwell said a presentation would be made to Dr. Coutts at the annual meeting, in recognition of his services.

Dr. Coutts, aged 83, practiced in Adelaide and several Victorian country centres before coming to Williamstown.

With his associates, he has surgeries in Nelson Place, Williamstown and Melbourne Road, Newport. He was elected Williamstown Council's medical officer of health in 1946 and held this position until he resigned recently.

Dr. Coutts was awarded the MBE in the 1973 New Year Honors, for "outstanding medical services."

During World War I, he served with the 24th Battalion as a medic.

FASHION SHOW

The Quota Club of Williamstown will hold a fashion parade in the Williamstown Technical School Assembly hall on Tuesday, September 17, to raise money for Williamstown and District Hospital's home for the frail aged.

Fashions for men, women and children have been provided by Heide's Boutique, Maurice Rushford and Staff, and Tiane & Tims, all of Altona.

Supper will be served and there is a donation of $2.

The assembly hall is in Kororoit Creek Road, Williamstown.

Margaret Daniel and Dorothy Thomson prepare for the Quota Club's fashion parade.

Helping War Widows

A big variety of goods will be sold at a market fair in the lower Melbourne Town Hall on Friday, September 13, at 10 a.m.

Goods for sale at the fair, organised by the War
Widows and Widowed Mothers' Association, include cakes, jams, gifts,
aprons, toys, dolls, china,
glassware and clothing.

There will also be lucky draw, and lunch will be available.

Branches conducting stalls include Footscray, Essendon, Melbourne and Northcote.

CHOCOLATE THIEF

A thief — presumably a young one — got into a home in Aiken Street,
Williamstown and stole three packets of cigarettes — and an Easter egg that was still around. The loser is Mr. Robert Wayne, foreman.

$450 at end of climb

Mr. Peter Avlijas, of Schutt Street, Newport, has been robbed of a radio cassette, camera, $24 in cash and other goods by someone who climbed up a pipe from a car-port roof and got through the bathroom window in his flat.

WHY WIVES ADORE US

Ask a happily married wife why she adores her husband . . . and the answer might not be quite what you expect.

A leading psychologist who has spent two years
researching the question has been amazed at the answers as to what makes a perfect husband. The results of this research make fascinating reading in a special report in the Sun-

Time for slimming

Girls, are you feeling tired and a little overweight? Now is the time to shed these excess pounds before Christmas and for that bikini you wore last year.

The YWCA has a slim-my group which meets every Friday night at the health studio in Station Street, Werribee. For 50 cents a week, why not come along and join us.

The annual meeting will be held on Friday, 13th
September, when there will be elections for office bearers.

If you are interested and would like to know more

Beach signs urged

The Williamstown Swimming and Life Saving Club would like to see warning signs in English, Greek and Italian put on the southern foreshore.

They should be put south and west of Shelly Beach and extend through to the edge of the area of beach patrolled by life-savers.

Williamstown councillors will consider the proposal.

Exit the Vikings, but reserves are premiers

By ALAN BURKITT

Altona City's quest for five premierships in a row ended on Saturday when they were defeated 16.9 to 12.7 by Werribee Centrals at Newport.

The Altona City reserves team, however, showed the seniors how by winning the Reserves grade premiership by 10 points from Sunshine Heights on Sunday.

The Vikings, weakened by the absence of Marty Crump, Gary Munro and Ian Roberts, lost the game in the first half when they frittered away many scoring chances.

The more determined and accurate Werribee side, with Dame Fortune well on their side, kicked straight for 8-2 at half time to the Vikings 2-6.

The bounce of the ball and many umpiring decisions seemed to favor Werribee, helping to frustrate the Altona players into making countless errors.

Danny Brennan, playing against doctor's orders with a cracked bone in a finger, and young Peter Mildenhall were great on the half back line and turned back many attacks. John Male continued his recent good form and was a dashing full back all day.

Positional changes in the third quarter sparked the Vikings. Wayne Jones relished his move to the centre and his five goals for the game was a terrific effort.

The Vikings were missing the dynamic Marty Crump, who was unable to get back from a fishing boat near Tasmania. When Altona were losing games early in the season, it was the return of Crump that lifted the side.

Altona scored 10.1 in the second half and more than matched Werribee in every position but were unable to make up for the poor first half.

Early in the final term, the Vikings threw everything at Werribee. Players were going down hard and incidents were many as both teams gave all they had for the right to play Newport in this week's Grand Final.

Werribee however were not easily rattled and the last quarter saw them score 3.5 to hold out the determined Vikings who added 4.1.

Scores: Werribee Centrals, 2.3, 8.2, 13.4, 16.9 (105); Altona City, 0.2, 2.6, 8.6, 12.7 (79).

Goals: W. Jones 5, R. Schwabe, G. Roe 2, G. Bend, D. Boyle, W. Patton 1.

Best: D. Brennan, P. Mildenhall, J. Males, W. Jones, J. and I. Hardham.

RESERVES.

The Vikings who had been the top team for most of the season, were hard pressed by a good Sunshine side.

An 8-point deficit at half time was increased to about four goals in the third quarter and the position appeared grim.

The true Viking spirit then came alive with gutsy performances from little men like Steve Stiles and Steve Grainger inspiring every member of the team.

Morrie Tisdale in his 100th game for the Vikings battled hard all day against taller Ruckmen, and Peter Mildenhall at centre half-back was a stumbling block. Marty Crump, back from Tasmania, gave drive from the centre and Kevin Bebed made every opportunity count by kicking four goals from a forward flank.

With only a narrow lead at the final change it was still anybody's game but the Vikings were not to be denied. A 'mile long' goal from Tisdale and some great forward play from John Duncan sealed the game and the premiership for Altona City.

Scores: Altona City, 13:15 (93); Sunshine Heights, 12.11 (83).

Goals: K. Bebed 4, M. Howard, S. Grainger, J. Duncan 2, M. Tisdale, P. Grainger, G. Sorrel.

Best: P. Mildenhall, S. Stiles, S. Grainger, M. Tisdale, M. Crump, J. and K. Bebed.

UNDER 13

The Under-13s, with a great final quarter against the wind, defeated Hoppers Crossing by three goals and earned another chance against Werribee in this week's grand final. Star of the game was Martin McCullagh who kicked five goals.

GOALS: McCullagh 5, P. Johns 2, D. Wise.

Best: McCullagh, Russell Knight, Gavin Scholes, Peter Clarke, George Rocco.

This week's grand final is at Newport commencing at 8.45 a.m.

UNDER 11

The Under 11s joined their seniors as third place getters when they were narrowly beaten by Westport on Sunday. The youngest Vikings were unable to match the marking strength of their opponents, causing most attacks to break down at half-forward.

Scores: Westport 5.6 (36) d. Altona 4.4 (28).

Goals: Chris Brown, Colin Burkitt, Glen Evans, Stephen Hynes.

Best: Brown, Brad Scholes, Murray and Doug Cooper, Evans.

JUNIOR SOCCER SIDE DOWN 8-0

Fielding a re-organised team, Altona Junior Soccer Club's under-13 side went down 8-0 to Sunshine Heights after losing the services of Stephen Patterson in the first ten minutes of play.

Patterson suffered a broken left leg — the second broken leg suffered by a squad member this season.

The team had to be reorganised because of non-arrivals.

Reduced to ten men, Altona fought well and were close to scoring on several occasions. Sunshine, however, scored four goals in each half to run out easy winners.

The club's under-15 and under-14 games were postponed.

Heights. Johnny Little scored in the first half, with Marty Bozic netting after the interval.

Altona 2 d. Sunshine Heights 0.

UNDER-11A
Altona opened a two point gap over Ajax after their win on Sundays.

In a hard-fought game both teams created openings but were unable to find the net. With about ten minutes to go Altona scored the all-important goal through Billy Hammill.

Scores: Altona 3 d. Ajax 0.

UNDER-11B

Two goals down inside 10 minutes, Altona fought back strongly and pulled a goal back through George Agius.

Playing the better soccer Altona opened Sunshine's defence on several occasions only to shoot too hurriedly. A little more steadiness in front of goal would have given Altona at least the one point they deserved.

Scores: Sunshine Heights 2 d. Altona 1.

UNDER-10

Juventus were soon on the defensive as Altona pressed forward in search of an early goal.

Several chances were wasted before Dario Zavattiero's shot was deflected past the keeper. Two goals from Duane Fitzgerald gave Altona a comfortable win.

Scores: Altona 3 d. Juventus 0.

UNDER-9

Against Sunshine Heights "B" Altona were made to struggle. Both sides produced negative play and the no-score draw was probably the best result either side could expect.

Scores: Altona 0 drew with Sunshine Heights 0.

Golf

Mrs. W. Esse won the Koorringal Golf Club Associates' medal-stroke event with a net 69.

Other winners were Mrs. K. Collins, with a gross 91, Mrs. B. Waters, a net 77, and Mrs. L. Neal, 29 putts on a countback from Mrs. M. Dellar.

Under-12: A goal in each half gave Altona victory over Sunshine

'Princess Ida' comes to Altona North

Performances of the Gilbert and Sullivan musical will be given on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 3-5, and the following Friday and Saturday evenings, October 11-12, commencing at 8 p.m.

A matinee will also be performed on Saturday, October 12, commencing at 2.15.

Bookings may be made at Barry John Meiswear, Altona North; and Herbert's Pharmacy, Altona; or from the ticket secretary, Brenda Downes, 12 Webb Stret, Altona, telephone 398 3033.

Party bookings with generous concessions may be made for groups of 20 or more.

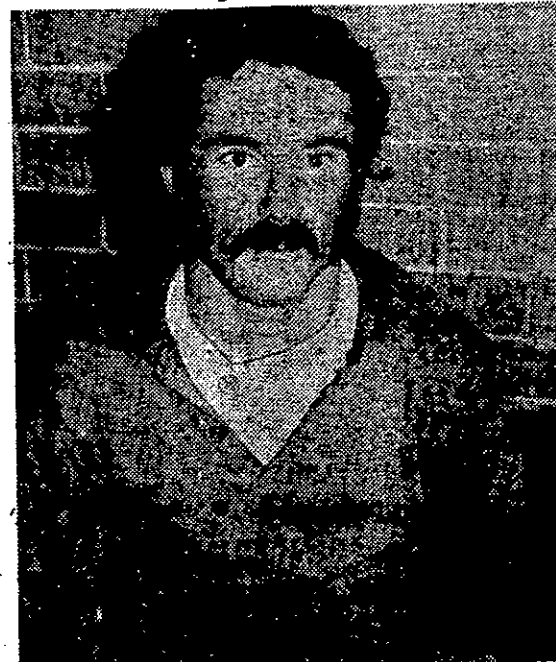

Below, Margaret Streader, female lead in Gilbert and Sullivan's Princess Ida to be presented at the Richard Gill Memorial Hall in October, is a housewife with wide experience in musical comedy. A mother of two, Margaret has also had considerable experience in Eisteddfods. She has appeared with the Westernport Light Opera Company and will also perform in "Little Mary Sunshine" at Williamstown next month.

The cast will be headed by Margaret Streader and Grahame Murphy and will include Michael Crow, Lyn Douglas, Jan Edwards, Greg Findlay, Julie Findlay, Alan Haggerty, John Harris, Bernie James, Paul Richiardi, Audrey Simpson, Colin Simpson and Judy Tregear.

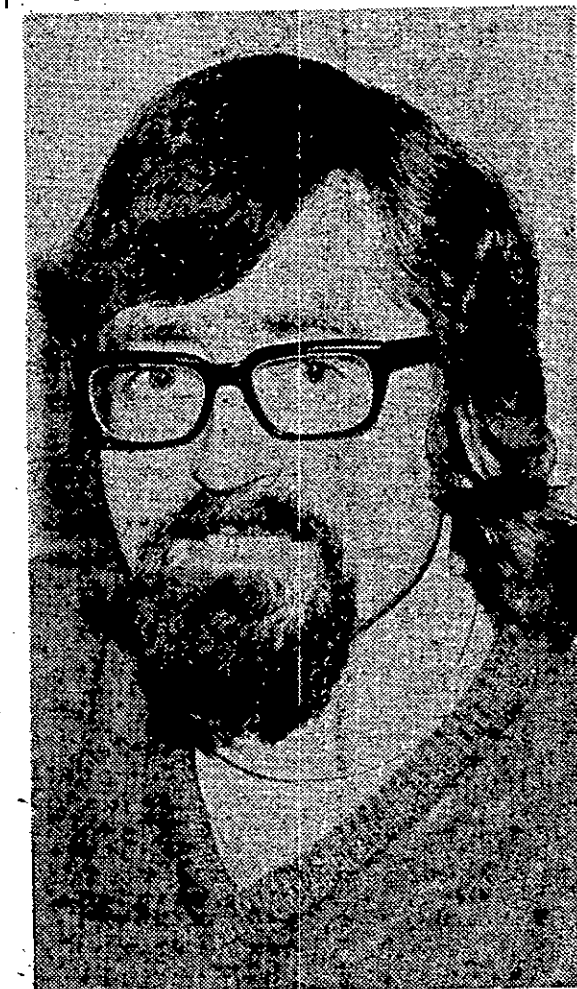

Princess Ida, to be directed by Paul Borg, is the third and final production by the group for 1974.

ABOVE: Male lead in next month's production of Princess Ida, Grahame Murphy, is also a director and set designer with experience in many Gilbert and Sullivan shows. He is a trustee of the Williamstown Little Theatre and recently directed A Funny Thing... for the WLT and Pumpkin Players. His role in Princess Ida will be the first serious singing he has attempted for a number of years. Five performances of Princess Ida will be given, preceded by a mayoral charity performance on October 2.

Swimming star at ten

Richie recently won the five events he entered in a Victorian swimming championship meeting held at Footscray.

His winning times were: 100 metres backstroke, 1 minute 27 seconds; 200 metres individual medley, 2.57.2; 100 metres breaststroke, 1.32.1; 100 metres butterfly, 1.23.5; 100 metres freestyle, 1.11.4.

Richie, a grade 5 pupil at Altona Primary School, also recorded a second in a 12-year-old event.

He started swimming when he first attended Altona Primary and later trained at the Leon Sweeney Swim School at Altona. For the past two years he has been training at Melbourne High School.

A NICE, SEDATE LITTLE MATCH

By STUART BROWN

It was a pleasant little well-ordered affair with no hint of the lightning that was the name of the game at Junction Oval, St. Kilda, on Sunday.

Well ordered, that is, for the Williamstown 16, who, with an air of enjoyment, neatly disposed of Caulfield in their 40-minute engagement.

Caulfield looked so good the week before that we had considerable misgivings about the outcome of the second round of the VFA lightning premiership.

But the Williamstowners played from the first bounce on Sunday, having trained hard during the week.

Glen Townsend's return to the side gave them a focus at full-forward. A sure pass from Fanning gave Townsend his first goal.

Sturdy Scott, bolting away from the crowd, snapped No. 2.

But Tony Hannebery paved the way for Caulfield's third goal—to give them a brief lead—when he playfully tossed the ball high from the mark to John Perry.

The umpire, less playful, called a 15-yard penalty, although it was only a little of business between friends.

The ball finished with S. Frigo, who put it through.

But the goal set the Towners going flat out. Fanning, marking nicely, palming, handling the ballerratic grubbed kick-off, as if he loved it in and out of the packs, was the mainspring.

"Rags" Radzinski did some jet-propelled dashes.

Caulfield attacks founded on Ron Fenton at full-back and Peter Kerr.

Bill Thompson, never flustered, was always a certain cog in the machine.

Scott brought up Williamstown's fifth when he brilliantly fielded an cricket?

SCOREBOARD

WILLIAMSTOWN 6.4 (40)
CAULFIELD 3.4 (22)
Best: Fanning, Fenton, Scott, Thompson, Kerr, Radzinski, Walker.

Goals: Scott 2, Fanning 2, Aughton, Townsend.

WILLIAMSTOWN 13.8.86
PORT MELB. 9.12.66

Goals: Muldowney 4, Sims 3, Rayner 2, Simpson, Murphy, Messina, Cloughton.

Best: Nash, Gurkin, Jamieson, Dawson, Sims, Simpson.

UNDER-15 PRELIM. FINAL

WERRIBEE 10.9 (69)

WILLIAMSTOWN: 8.12 (60)

Goals: Whittington 4 Webb 2, Byrgiotis 2.

Best: Dean, Eldridge, Whittington, Webb, Byrgiotis, Matty.

Williamstown A Under-11 team plays Westport in the grand final next Sunday, September 15, at Newport oval, beginning at 1 p.m.

FOURTH'S FLAG

Williamstown Fourths won their third successive premiership when they beat Port Melbourne by 20 points on Saturday.

Coach John Raffles has taken the Fourths into four Grand Finals in five years.

Saturday's game was a keen one, but Town stayed in front throughout. Port crept to within 11 points of them during the last quarter.

Adrian Sims won the Fourths best-and-fairest award for the season.

Women's bowls season opens

The first jack of the season was rolled by Altona's Mayoress, Mrs. Marje Stewart at last week's opening day for women bowlers at Altona.

The Victorian Ladies Bowling Association councillor, Mrs. Jean Tomson rolled the first bowl.

Mrs. Stewart was accompanied by the town clerk's wife, Mrs. E. Fell.

Working bees by the men and efforts by the ladies were responsible for much of the day's success. Catering was at its best.

Beautiful hand-made lace baskets containing two rose-shaped handkerchiefs were a feature at the official table. Made by the president, Jan Douglas, the gifts were greatly appreciated by mesdames Tomson, Stewart, Fell, Stephens, Walsh, Shaw and Mitchell.

Responding to a toast to the VLBA, Mrs. Tomson informed those present that clubs throughout Victoria had been responsible for raising $130,000 for charity since the inception of the Helen Bridgeford Charity Appeal.

The chosen charity for this season is the Asthma Foundation.

The number of sides playing pennant has increased to 710 for the 1974-75 season.

Members adjourned to the green for a game of 8 ends.

The presentation of trophies was made by president, Jan Douglas.

Winning rink: J. Cheasley (A) v. V. Ferguson (AWM), G. Cartwright (A), B. Wright (Sun. VBI). Runners-up: M. Dowling (YTS), J. Mitchell (A), J. McNeillage (A), A. Vanmeurs (Lara).

Spider: J. Davis (Queenscliff), E. Flynn (Altona).

Ditch-to-ditch: C. Blake (Sunshine), J. Cheasley (Altona).

Indoor aggregate winner was Hazel Condon. Equal runners-up were M. Richardson and M. Parker.

Reminders: Thursday, September 12, 11 a.m., mixed or ladies, lady captain, morning tea, lunch provided, 75 cents per player.

Sunday, September 15, 2 p.m., ladies v. men.

Thursday, September 17, 11 a.m., Lena Cox shield annual tournament, Altona v. Rosamond, lunch provided.
